RESPONDENT GENERAL DIE CASTERS, INC.'S
MOTION TO EXCEED PAGE LIMITATION
SET FORTH IN SECTION 102.46

NOW Comes the Respondent, General Die Casters, Inc. (hereafter "Respondent" or "General Die") and pursuant to the National Labor Relations Board Rules and Regulations, Section 102.46 (j), for good cause shown, respectfully requests a page limit exception for its brief in support of its exceptions to ALJ Mark Carissimi's decision in the above referenced matter. Respondent's exceptions and supporting brief is to be filed by 11:59 p.m. on July 15, 2011.

Counsel requests this page limitation exception due to the following: (1) ALJ Carissimi's decision was eighty-five (85) pages in length; (2) the transcript of the hearing in this matter was in excess of two thousand two hundred (2,200) pages; (3) the parties presented over two hundred (200) exhibits in total; and (4) each party's post hearing brief was in excess of one-hundred (100) pages.

Based upon the forgoing, Respondent has identified several issues in ALJ Carissimi's underlying decision which it desires to have the Board consider. Accordingly, based upon scope of the physical record outlined above, Respondent cannot properly address its exceptions to ALJ Carissimi's findings set forth in his eighty five (85) page decision within the standard length of fifty (50) pages.

Respectfully submitted:
