BEFORE THE NATIONAL LABOR RELATIONS BOARD
SEVENTH REGION

IN THE MATTER OF

RANDOM ACQUISITIONS, LLC,

and Case No. 7-CA-52473

SHERRIE CVETNICH, an Individual.

RANDOM ACQUISITIONS, LLC'S MOTION FOR THIRTY DAY EXTENSION TO FILE EXCEPTIONS AND BRIEF

Pursuant to 102.46 of the Board's Rules and Regulations, Respondent Random Acquisitions, LLC (Respondent) respectfully requests a thirty (30) day extension, until May 13th, 2011, to file its exceptions and appeal brief to the decision of Administrative Law Judge Mark D. Rubin dated March 21, 2011. As grounds for this request Respondent shows as follows:

1. Respondent has this date also submitted a motion to amend its Answer to the Complaint to conform to the evidence, a decision on which motion is necessary to properly frame the issues for appeal before Respondent prepares its exceptions and brief.
2. The trial record and history of this matter is quite lengthy, and the appeal will present multiple issues.
3. Respondent's counsel is a sole practitioner.

4. Additionally, Respondent's counsel was on vacation when the decision arrived at his office, and also had some health problems that prevented him from working on the appeal for approximately a week.
5. A thirty-day extension is reasonably necessary and should be granted in the interests of justice.

WHEREFORE, Respondent respectfully requests that the Board grant Respondent a thirty (30) day extension, until May 13th, 2011, to file its exceptions and appeal brief to the decision of Administrative Law Judge Mark D. Rubin dated March 21, 2011.

Respectfully submitted,
