Mason Tenders Local 388, affiliated with Virginia and North Carolina Laborers' District Council (5-CB-10112; 352 NLRB No. 2) Chesapeake, VA Jan. 23, 2008. The Board granted the General Counsel's motion for summary judgment and held that the Respondent violated Section 8(b)(3) of the Act by failing and refusing to provide Sprinkle Masonry, Inc. (the Charging Party) with information that is relevant and necessary for collective bargaining. According to the uncontroverted allegations in the motion for summary judgment, the Respondent failed to comply with the terms of the parties' settlement agreement by failing to provide the Charging Party with any collective-bargaining agreements, memoranda of agreement, side letters and other agreements negotiated on or after July 1, 2004, or a statement stating that no such information exists, and failing to post the Notice to Employees and Members. Pursuant to the noncompliance provisions of the settlement agreement, the Board found that all of the allegations of the complaint are true. [\[HTML\]](#) [\[PDF\]](#)

(Members Liebman and Schaumber participated.)
