JOINT MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME TO FILE ANSWERING BRIEFS

Come now the Counsel for the General Counsel and Counsel for the Charging Party-Petitioner, International Union, United Automobile, Aerospace and Agricultural Implement Workers of America ("UAW"), and hereby jointly move for a 14 day extension of time to file answering briefs in these cases. The reasons for this motion are more fully set forth below.

1. On October 19, 2007, the Honorable Administrative Law Judge Lawrence W. Cullen issued his decision in the above referenced consolidated cases. In that decision, Judge Cullen found that the Respondent PPG Industries, Inc., had committed several unfair labor practices and engaged in objectionable conduct during an election held in October of 2006 in which the Union lost 214-210. Judge Cullen's decision also sustained several challenges filed by the UAW to ballots cast by certain employees of PPG. In his Order, Judge Cullen recommended, inter alia, that a new election be held should the impounded challenged ballots that he ordered be counted do not result in a majority in favor of the Union after a revised tally of ballots.
2. On November 14, 2007 the respondent served voluminous exceptions to Judge

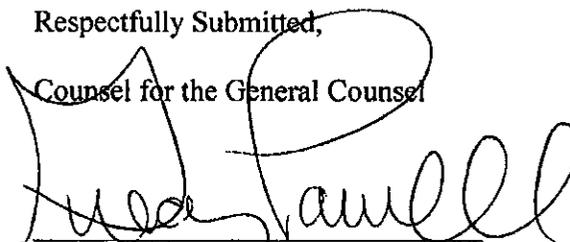

Cullen's decision. In total, the respondent filed 46 exceptions to the Judge's decision and remedy. Pursuant to the Board's rules and regulations, answering briefs are due to be filed by December 3, 2007.

3. Because of the press of other previously scheduled hearings and matters as well as the intervening Thanksgiving Holiday, the Counsel for the General Counsel and counsel for the Charging Party-Petitioner require additional time to adequately respond to the voluminous exceptions filed by the respondent.
4. Therefore, the Counsel for the General Counsel and the counsel for the Charging Party-Petitioner respectfully request an additional 14 days up to and including December 17, 2007 in which to file their respective answering briefs in these consolidated cases. This is the first request for an extension made by either the Counsel for the General Counsel or counsel for the Charging Party-Petitioner and is made in good faith and not to unduly delay the proceedings in this case.

Wherefore the above cited reasons and good cause shown, the Counsel for the General Counsel and counsel for the Charging Party-Petitioner respectfully request that their joint motion be granted and that they be permitted up to and including December 17, 2007 in which to file answering briefs in this case.

Respectfully Submitted,

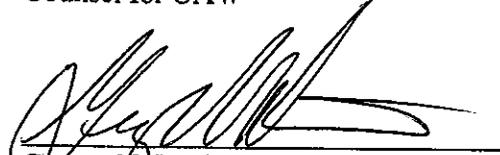

Counsel for the General Counsel
