Re: DIRECTV U.S. DIRECTV HOLDINGS LLC & IAM Local 947
NLRB Case No. 21-CA-39546

Dear Executive Secretary:

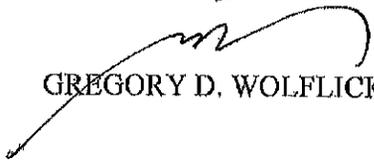

By this letter, Respondent, DirecTV U.S. DirecTV Holdings, LLC ("DirecTV") requests an extensions of time to file exceptions and supporting briefs pursuant to Section 102.46 of the Board's rules and regulations.

According to the Order Transferring Proceedings to the NLRB, exceptions and supporting briefs which would otherwise have been due on or before January 10, 2012. Upon request of Respondent, based on the intervening holidays, your office granted an extension of time up to and including January 31, 2012 in which to file exceptions and supporting briefs.

During January of 2012, counsel for Respondent, Wolflick & Simpson, have experienced a number of health related absences, including surgery for cancer related conditions and influenza which in turn have caused a delay in the preparation of Respondent's exceptions and supporting briefs. Therefore, Respondent requests that it be granted a short final extension of time to file exceptions up to and including February 6, 2012.

A copy of this request for extensions of time is served on all other parties of record as reflected on the attached Proof of Service.

Very truly yours,
WOLFLICK & SIMPSON

XXX (BY MAIL) as follows: I am readily familiar with the firm's practice of collection and processing correspondence for mailing. Under that practice it would be deposited with U.S. postal service on that same day with postage thereon fully prepaid at Glendale, California in the ordinary course of business. I am aware that on motion of the party served, service is presumed invalid if postal cancellation date or postage meter date is more than one day after date of deposit of mailing in affidavit.

XXX (BY ELECTRONIC SERVICE) Based on a court order or an agreement of the parties to accept service by electronic transmission, I caused the documents to be sent to the persons at the electronic notification addresses listed above on January 27, 2012. I did not receive, within a reasonable time after the transmission, any electronic message, or other indication that the transmission was unsuccessful.

XXX (BY STATE) I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the above is true and correct.

Executed on January 27, 2012, at Glendale, California
